Masonic Mysteries.

On last Friday afternoon, St. Bernard Lodge No. 222, at four o'clock, responded promptly to Worshipful Master Benson's gavel in special communication for work on the imperfect ashlar, to which reference was made in the notice disseminated for the meeting.

Nearly forty visitors, representing sixteen different lodges and six different States were in attendance to render any necessary assistance.

The examination of the applicants as to proficiency was conducted by Brother Henkel, and their high degree of skill in the work brought ample bouquets of congratulations to him as their instructor. All visitors and all members expressed unbounded admiration of the expert intelligence of the candidates—one a popular attorney—one an earnest and educated teacher of the Right—and one a long-tried and long-suffering passenger conductor on the Santa Fe.

The preliminaries having all been completed at this special, the Lodge reassembled in stated communication at 8 o'clock for real business, which culminated in the advent of three masons, of which any lodge might be justly proud. The concluding lecture and charges were given in a most superb manner by Bro. J. A. Corey, to which (if possible), additional sublimity and force were given by an electric display of the emblems of the third degree through a fine stereopticon under the skillful management of Bro. W. J. Davies.

Nearly one hundred persons were served in the lodge dining room—so many more than was supposed would be present that charges would have been preferred against the commissary department, had not the ladies of St. Bernard Chapter 97, O. E. S., surprised us by invading the repastory bearing great armloads and aprons of their delicious cookery, and the threatened deficit was thereby prevented. The dear ladies have the heartfelt thanks of the lodge.

Returning to the lodge room, Brother Churchill was appointed Toastmaster, who, with that inborn knack of his which impels him to bring out the very best of what is naturally expected at such a gathering (but we were highly disappointed, for we got better than we expected all around and perhaps better from our distinguished visitors than we deserved), called upon Hon. Bro. Hutchison of Garden City, Hon. Bro. Winn of Jetmore, Hon. Bro. Wiley of Meade, Hon. Bro. Sloan of Pratt, to respond to the appropriate sentiments offered. Our novices certainly acquitted themselves as if by inspiration. The most profound emotions were exhibited by the listeners.

One incident of the gathering was the presence of, most likely, the oldest mason in Kansas, Bro. W. W. Adams, who was made a mason in 1842. The dear old brother seemed to enjoy all the mystic ceremonies as keenly as those who were not born when he took upon himself the human duties and almost super-human responsibilities of a master mason.

Another noticeable feature of the occasion was Pete Mercereau—a man who daily demonstrates that the onus of a government office need not necessarily generate pride and haughtiness. So much for a good heart.

John E. Stewart, Carmel, Ind., writes: My daughter has weak lungs and catches cold at almost every change of weather. We have tried many remedies, but nothing stops her cough equal to Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup. We keep it. W. F. Pine.

Walter Pine delivers the Topeka State Journal anywhere in town at ten cents per week. For general state and railroad news the Journal is unexcelled.
